B.Com. ACCA

Integration of ACCA with B.Com at MAEER's MIT Arts, Commerce and Science College (MITACSC) means that the ACCA (Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) professional qualification is academically aligned with the B.Com curriculum. Under this integration, selected B.Com Semester V and VI subjects are mapped with ACCA papers, allowing students to earn up to 7 ACCA paper exemptions while completing their regular B.Com degree. This enables students to pursue a globally recognized accounting and finance qualification alongside their graduation, without extending the duration of their studies. Benefits to students opting for this program include a strong global curriculum exposure, enhanced employability in India and abroad, and significant savings in time and cost due to paper exemptions. ACCA is recognized in over 180 countries, opening pathways to careers in accounting, auditing, taxation, finance, consulting, and multinational companies. Students also gain access to the ACCA Career Portal, professional learning resources, ethics and professional skills development, and alignment with NEP's skill-based education framework, making them industry-ready and globally competitive.

Admission procedure and eligibility are simple: students admitted to the B.Com program at MITACSC are eligible to opt for the integrated ACCA program. After college-level orientation, interested students register with ACCA under the ACCA Accelerate/Integrated pathway through the institution. There is no separate entrance exam; admission is based on B.Com enrollment and institutional guidelines, with academic progression aligned to semester-wise subjects.

Total papers and fee structure for MITACSC students: The ACCA qualification consists of 13 papers (3 Applied Knowledge, 6 Applied Skills, and 4 Strategic Professional) along with the Ethics and Professional Skills Module. MITACSC students are eligible for up to 7 exemptions (5 default + 2 integrated), reducing the number of papers to be attempted.
