ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The Make in India initiative was launched by Government of India in September, 2014 as part of a wider set of nation-building programme. It was devised to transform India into a global design and manufacturing hub, Make in India was a timely response to a critical situation of 2013, the much-talked emerging markets bubble had burst, and India's growth rate had fallen to its lowest level in a decade. Global investors debated whether the world's largest democracy was at risk or with an opportunity. India's 1.2 billion citizens questioned whether India was too big to succeed or too big to fail.

Make in India was launched against the backdrop of this crisis, and quickly became a rallying cry for India's innumerable stakeholders and overseas partners. It was a powerful, galvanizing call to action to India's citizens and business leaders, and an invitation to potential overseas partners and investors around the world. But, Make in India is much more than an inspiring slogan. It represents a comprehensive and unprecedented overhaul of out-dated processes and policies. Most importantly it represents the change in government policy, Minimum Government and Maximum Governance'.

The program emphasizes on 25 major sectors with focus on job creation and skill enhancement. These include: automobiles, chemicals, IT, textiles, ports, aviation, leather, tourism and hospitality, wellness, railways, design manufacturing, renewable energy, mining, bio-technology, pharmaceuticals and electronics etc.

This campaign aims to boost manufacturing and entrepreneurship growth by 10 percent per year, promoting and creating 100 million jobs over the next decade and bringing manufacturing up to 25 percent of Indian GDP. This campaign was to propel the growth through its different driver sectors in the environment of fierce competition. The competition now is not only with developed countries but is also with many of the developing countries as well. To be a change India, will need to show dramatic improvement in its ease of doing business and other administration part as well. The implementation of this programme is already started by Indian government, but the effectiveness of it depends upon the real drivers of the change i.e. the academicians, researchers, industrialists and students. Therefore you all are invited for this seminar with your research work.

OBJECTIVES OF SEMINAR

- To study the "Make in India" initiative taken by the Government.
- To sight growth opportunities in domestic industry.
- To understand the role of Indian states in this initiative.
- To highlight the opportunities in select 25 and allied sectors like finance, banking, insurance, and other service sectors.
- To discuss "Make in India" initiatives and the 'Inclusive growth for all'.

" DEMONETIZATION AND REMONETIZATION ISSUES AND CHALLENGES FOR INDIAN ECONOMY "

On 22nd & 23rd December, 2017.

Your active participation will definitely help us to have fruitful discussions and interactions on various aspects of the decision taken by the Government of India regarding change of currency in India. The seminar is being sponsored by Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

The MIT Group of Institutions, known for imparting value based universal education, has made its mark in the field of professional education. Our mission is to aspire and strive for excellence in education and research by developing and sharpening the intellectual ability and potential for learners for the welfare and prosperity of society and stakeholders. The objective of MIT ACSC is to infuse dynamism and an all-round development of the students with clear vision for the future and to achieve high standards of excellence. It is matter of proud for us that, MIT ACSC got honored with Best College Award for two consecutive years by Savitribai Phule Pune University for effective implementation of Students Welfare Schemes.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

On '8 November 2016', the Government of India announced the demonetization, commonly referred as notebandi, of all Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000 currency notes. The government claimed that the action would curtail the shadow economy and crack down on the use of illicit and forged cash to fund illegal activity and terrorism. The sudden nature of the announcement and the prolonged cash shortages in the weeks that followed, created significant disruption throughout the economy, threatening economic output.

This two days state level seminar on this current issue will try to discuss and analyze the impact of demonetization and remonetization on Indian economy. This seminar will be a platform to share the views on theme subject and discuss in detail the impact of this verdict on various sectors right from agriculture to international trade and from households to global business stalwarts.

The said decision has stirred up the entire country from beggars to capitalists per se & created many new issues on one hand and mitigated the various economic problems on another.

The seminar will try to focus on the success and failure of current demonetization and the challenges faced by the every citizen including households, small and large businesses, government and international business players through expert sessions, papers presentations by the participants. Accordingly, we invite the academicians, researchers, industrialists and students for this seminar with their original research work.

Selected papers will be published in seminar proceedings with ISBN number.

OBJECTIVES OF SEMINAR

- * To develop the understanding of macro-economic terms i.e. the Demonetisation & Remonetisation
- * To discuss sector specific impact of demonetization.
- * To study and impart the overall impact of demonetization on economy.
